

Engineers India Ltd ENGINEERSIN

Analyst comments-

We started being bullish on Construction theme in 2022 when very few people were interested. Buy was provided near to 68.

As Construction sector worked well, Engineers india also has done very well in all the segments. Be it Revenue, PAT, EBIDTA, OPM or PBT.

Sector is in Euphoria. Although we are bullish on India's zeal to make Great infra in the country. Investing is not only about that. We have to take risk and reward into consideration before making a decision.

Also we have to make room for new opportunities so we have to concentrate our existing portfolio.

We are booking 253% (3.53X) profit in this company.
